

The NJ law is working fine; there is no need to change it.
States should be allowed to implement effective "Do Not Call" alternatives to the federal law.